Fifth War Loan Drive Opens Monday, June 12, With $175,000 As Objective

Daly Cty opened its Fifth War Loan drive, Monday, June 12, under the chairmanship of Walter J. Lehigh. With a quota of $175,000 to meet in a month's time the community will need the cooperation of all organizations and individuals to reach its goal.

Lehigh has named Mrs. Joseph Conlon, 462 Templeton avenue, as co-chairman for the campaign. She will organize a retail committee to contact every business house in town.

Bill Almquist, manager of the Safeway at 6318 Mission street, handed a $1,000 check to Lehigh, this week, as their participation in the Daly City drive.

The Daly City theatre is cooperating with the drive by having available a bond booth where sales may be made, every evening. Old Glory Post and Auxiilary No. 2044, V. F. W., opened the theatre schedule, June 12. They will remain until June 18, when Crocker P. T. A. takes over for three evenings, June 19, 20 and 21. American Legion Post No. 410 and auxiliary will have charge, June 22 through June 25.

All organizations are urged to participate. Lehigh announces that the Golden State Milk company has offered to canvass its own customers during the campaign here.

Jefferson Union high school, Daly City Post Office, Daly City branch, Bank of America, are all cooperating.

"Doing our job at home can help to shorten the war—shorten our gold star list. And right now the biggest part of our job is buying extra War Bonds!" Lehigh urged.

Chief Reardon Suspends Officer Walter Davis

Police Chief James G. Reardon has suspended Officer Walter O. Davis, 30, from the Daly City Police force as a result of charges brought against Davis by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Arrested Wednesday night, June 7, by F. B. I. agents and the Daly City chief, Davis allegedly admitted the theft of $2,200 worth of chewing gum from freight cars at Third and Townsend streets.

The complaint, which charged Davis with stealing goods moving in interstate commerce, was filed with U. S. Commissioner Francis St. James Fox, after A. J. Zirpoli, assistant U. S. Attorney, said 35 cases of gum disappeared in transit.

Bail was set at $2,500, which Davis had apparently raised as the clerk of the U. S. court, San Francisco, informed this newspaper, Wednesday, that Davis was indicted, Tuesday, June 13, and that a bench warrant had been issued for his arrest. Until his rearrest and appearance before a U. S. Commissioner the date of the trial could not be set.

Davis has been on the local police force for the past year and a half.

At the city council's regular meeting, Monday night, June 12, no recognition of the case was taken. When the head of the police commission, Councilman Eugene V. Lynch, made his report under the call for committee reports Davis was not mentioned, although he was originally arrested the week before and county dailies had given the incident a "big play."

Councilmen Pass Two Resolutions During Regular Open Meeting, June 12

If any of the several dozen spectators in attendance at the regular meeting of the Daly City Council, Monday night, June 12, expected a stormy session, highlighted by the much discussed 38-page transcript of charges against local police, he was rewarded for his time at the council chambers with a very routine meeting, one which should furnish gossip of only the dry-as-dust variety.

Mayor A. J. Gaggero called the meeting to order at 8:35 p. m. with Councilmen B. L. Meritt, Eugene V. Lynch, Howard A. McHugh, and Edward J. Dennis present, as well as Police Chief James G. Reardon, City Clerk B. C. Ross, City Attorney F. E. Hoffmann, Health Officer Fred A. Collins, and Poundmaster Archie Banfield.

Under communications, the city received a bid from the county tax collector for a Hillcrest drive property, which was referred to Meritt for investigation and report; heard an application from James C. Welsh for a position as Daly City police officer, which was filed for future consideration; accepted cancellation of a War department lease for the acre at the top of the hill near the reservoir (Lynch moved that the $1 per year lease be cancelled at the request of the War department and the motion was unanimously passed); received a suggested resolution from the Division of Highways relative to the quarter-cent gas tax allocations for the fiscal year of 1945, which was referred to the city engineer and attorney.

Resolution No. 850 was adopted unanimously on the motion of Councilman McHugh. It provides that the Daly City Water works may remove certain delinquent bills from their records and place them in a reference file. These represent bills on the books since 1943 on which there is little likelihood of collection as the water users have moved and left no forwarding addresses.

Resolution No. 851, upon the motion of Councilman Meritt, was unanimously adopted. It provided for the transfer of funds from certain special funds to the general fund, reimbursing the general fund in the amount of $20,672.75. The special funds from which the

Colma District Has $100,000 Bond Quota

Colma district has a quota of $100,000 for the Fifth War Loan drive, according to Mrs. M. Pauline Brown, war finance chairman for the area. She announces that John Ferrari, manager of the Colma branch, Bank of America, is chairman of the drive, assisted by the A. W. V. S. committee of which Mrs. Alma Garibaldi is chairman, and Mattrup Jensen, chairman for Colma incorporated.

The following ladies are serving at the A. W. V. S. table in the bank, where bond purchases may be made, Mrs. Garibaldi, Mrs. Estelle Packwood, Miss Jean Belli, Mrs. Eda Giusti, Mrs. Dorothy DeLeon, Mrs. Dina Rossi, Miss Caroline Migliore, and Mrs. Brown.

A special feature of the opening week of the campaign will be a Colma Bondadier Day, Saturday, June 17, when the A. W. V. S. Bondmobile and a jeep will be in front of the Colma bank between 1 and 5 p. m. Bond purchasers will be rewarded with a jeep ride.

George Lagomarsino has arranged a large thermometer in the window of Anchor Drug store, Mission and Market streets, to indicate just how Colma's sales go and this is surrounded by an attractive display of Fifth War Loan posters made by children in the upper grades of Jefferson Elementary school.

Ask Volunteers To Return Masks

How about it? Has that gas mask you were issued by the Daly City Civilian War Council been returned to the city hall?

The U. S. Army needs every mask in Daly City and the council director, A. J. Bodien, asks that every volunteer return his mask to Room 2 or the police department, city hall, immediately.

Each person is asked to attach his name to the mask he is returning.

Approximately 440 gas masks were originally issued in Daly City and less than 75 per cent have been turned in to date.

It's Time To Buy That Stamp Again!

The Auto Use Tax Stamp is now on sale at all post offices and Internal Revenue offices throughout the state, according to an announcement made today by Collector of Internal Revenue Harold A. Berliner of San Francisco.

Auto Use Tax Stamps must be on the windshield of all cars by July 1, the collector said. Cost of the stamp is $5.

The collector advised auto owners to thoroughly clean the windshield first. Then moisten the windshield rather than the stamp in affixing it to the car.

DRAFT BOARD

Mrs. Isabelle Flynn, chief clerk, announced today that Daly City Draft Board No. 103 has a call for 32 men to take pre-induction physical examinations, June 24. She said only a portion of this quota could be met by the board.

Actual induction calls for the month include June 19, Army, fifty men; June 28, Army, twelve men; June 30, Navy, 26 men.

No July requests have been received as yet from the armed forces and, under the new plan of not inducting any men over 26 in essential industry, lighter calls are anticipated.

The local board has nearly completed the huge task of removing all men over 26 from 1-A according to occupational status.

NEWS FROM LOCAL OPA

(Editor's note: this column is prepared for The Record's readers by the local OPA board and is printed by this newspaper for the convenience of both the public and the board.)

Just a reminder: the local board office, 470 Grand avenue, South San Francisco, will open at 10 a. m. daily on and after June 19 . . . New ceiling prices for about 600 dry grocery items went into effect May 17. These price lists are available to you in a handy purse-size list—a miniature of those posted in grocery stores. Get yours at the local board free for the asking . . . Also available are meat ceiling price charts—same size . . . Protect the value of your family food dollar by refusing to pay more than ceiling prices. If you are overcharged for an item first call it to the retailer's attention in case it may be an error. If the retailer does not correct the price, report the violation to the Price Panel of the local board. Retailers are being called in for hearings almost every day.

Your letters and the hearing panel do much to hold-the-line in prices and stamp out black market operations . . . Price Panel assistants are still needed. Drop a card or call at the board.

Volunteer to do your part . . . Ceiling prices on fresh fruits and vegetables change every week . . . Reports from consumers of any cases of OPA violations, such as sale of gasoline without coupons or sales of rationed meats without stamps, will be checked by your local board. Hearings will be held on all violations. The hearing panel had nine citations for speeding. Results: penalties ranged from surrender of two coupons for minor offense to six months suspension of mileage rations for long distance unauthorized travel.

Volunteer Price Panel assistants are needed to help check prices in local stores. If you can spare two to four hours a week visiting local stores and checking prices, please write to your OPA Board 83-12-3, 470 Grand avenue, South San Francisco. Give name, address and phone number. Experienced people will work with you and teach you. You will be serving your country on the home front, doing your part to hold the line on the cost of living. . . . There are dollars and cents ceilings on all retail sales of radio tubes. Know the number of the tube and call the price secretary at South San Francisco 1221 . . . Highest price on filet of sole is 44c per pound—don't pay more. . . . onions, eggs and carrots are plentiful now; some dried prunes were released in May. Keep at your Victory Garden—it is not too late to plant now. Victory Gardens did much to contribute to our present food supply advantage. . . . Your new shoe stamp, Airplane stamp 2 in Book No. 3 is now good. Stamp 1 is good too—if you still have it.

Daly City people may get applications for sugar, shoes, gasoline, etc. at Robertson's Egg Store, 9 Hillcrest drive. It will save you a trip to the board . . . A handy purse-size list "OPA Community Ceiling Prices" is now available. Ceiling prices of popular brands of bread, butter, cereals, canned vegetables, pastes, syrups, etc. are listed. These lists are available at the OPA office at 470 Grand avenue, South San Francisco. Your friends and neighbors would like one too—get a list of them and pick their copies up when you come in for yours. . . The tire situation is looking much better but the gasoline supply is still in question. C2 and B2 gasoline stamps expired at midnight, May 31.

FIFTH WAR LOAN DRIVE

With the battle of Armageddon now being fought on the fields of France, the coming of the Fifth War Loan Drive at this time should bring forth an unparalleled outpouring of the nation's dollars in support of our fighting men.

The $16 billion that will—and must—be raised in this drive, from June 12 to July 8, will keep the vital supplies of war marching to the battle zones so that our armies may continue their march against the foe.

Your dollars—the ones you didn't spend on entertainment, new clothes, or some other item—will enable you to fight side by side with the men who carry the guns. Every time you buy a Bond you will be taking your place in the foxhole along side some American son, or brother, or father. You will be helping him to carry on the fight—your fight—which he is risking his life to win. But with you there giving him more and better tools for the job, he can do it better, quicker and with greater safety.

All over America a vast army of volunteers have "joined up" to sell War Bonds in this campaign, augmenting the regular War Bond sales agencies such as banks which have handled the bulk of War Bond sales at their own expense since the days before Pearl Harbor.

Of the $16 billion, $6 billion is the share assigned to individual Bond purchasers. This means that each wage and salary earner should invest an extra $100 in War Bonds as his share. And he should plan to keep those Bonds until maturity. "It will be no help to the war effort," declared Mr. L. M. Giannini, president of Bank of America, "if you buy Bonds today and sell them next week, next month or next year. You should not only buy Bonds to the maximum of your capacity," he continued, "but you should keep the Bonds until maturity."

This war is being fought "for keeps." We must back our heroes with every dollar at our command. They will not fail us. We must not fail them.

FLAG DAY

With the Stars and Stripes flying proudly over the heads of our fighting men in every section of the globe, Flag Day this year has a deeper meaning to us all.

Since a year ago at this time "Old Glory" has been raised over many a Pacific island in the march back toward the Philippines and the eventual liberation of the peoples of the Far East. It is with our troops in the European area for the greatest invasion of all history.

Back in the days of the Revolutionary war when the 13 stars and 13 stripes first appeared as the banner of the Colonies fighting for freedom, Tom Paine uttered the historic words which are just as applicable to the present struggle as they were when we first took up arms aganist tyranny. "It is the object only of war that makes it honorable. And if there was ever a just war since the world began, it is this in which America is now engaged . . . We fight not to enslave, but to set a country free, and to make room upon the earth for honest men to live in."

Under this banner we shall go forward as a united people, refusing to be divided by the attempts of our enemies to divide us into religious, racial or economic groups. We shall continue to prove that America is "one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

RETURNING REFUGEES

Nobody knows how many people have been torn from their homes in this war and are now living in other areas or other countries. One of the most conservative estimates places the figure at 90 million—30 million in Europe and 60 million in Asia.

Returning these millions to their homes, or what is left of their homes, after the war will be a stupendous task and may take years to complete. The situation will be similar to that which would exist if two out of every three people in the United States were hundreds or thousands of miles from home and wanted to get there at once.

Even that does not tell the story since transportation facilities in America are extensive and have not been touched by bombs. In Europe and Asia the means of transportation either were inadequate to begin with or have been badly smashed by repeated aerial blows.

All this is just another reminder that while the problems of war are hard, the problems which come after the war may be harder.

YOU ARE YOUR OWN SANTA CLAUS

According to Business Week, revenues from income and excess-profits taxes will decrease. Profits of large industrial corporations after taxes, as compiled by the Federal Reserve, hit top in 1941. The over-all return for 1943, on much greater volume, was close to 20 per cent below 1941. There will be no more "rich to soak," so more of the money to cover all waste, extravagance, and incursions of government into the field of business will come out of the small taxpayer. Uncle Sam isn't Santa Claus. He is just the tax bill collector from 135,000,000 little Santa Clauses.

JACK ANDERSON SUPPORTS EXTENSION

Congressman Jack Anderson, last week, said he would support the extension of the Emergency Price Control Act (O. P. A.) In a letter to the California-Labor-Consumer committee of Santa Clara county Anderson declared, "As you undoubtedly know, the Emergency Price Control Act will soon be under consideration in both the House and the Senate as it must be extended by law prior to June 30, 1944. I intend to support the extension of this measure as I consider it absolutely essential in order to prevent abnormal increases in the cost of living."

Anderson has consistently maintained control of prices is necessary to eliminate abnormal increases in the cost of living, prevent profiteering, and check inflation. While he, at times, has severely criticized the bungling and contradictory directives emanating from Washington, he has always paid high tribute to the tireless and unselfish work done by the local ration board under most difficult circumstances.

It was through Anderson's insistance that legislation was passed making it necessary that administrative officers in Washington have at least five years practical experience in the field they were to administer. This has cleared up much of the contradictory rules and confusion the local boards were forced to work under.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

Vicki Baum has followed her immensely popular "Grand Hotel" with another novel about a German hostelry—"Hotel Berlin '43." Hotel Berlin, like its predecessor, has a varied assortment of fascinating guests, but things have changed radically under a war-torn Nazi regime.

VICKI BAUM

The windowpanes are still shattered from the last air raid. The heavy brocade curtains have tears in them, and the stuffing is coming out of the deep luxurious chairs. But the hotel is still the best there is, and to it come people of high position, Rumanian officers, Nazi officials, famous actresses. To it also comes Martin Richter, underground leader, and there he is hidden in the deep wine cellars by two sympathetic French waiters.

On the walls of houses, on the cars of the crowded underground trains, there often appears a scrawl, "You can kill Richter—but you can't kill his spirit." Service crews go around and wipe it off; guards are posted to watch the exposed spots. But the next morning, there is the handwriting again.

The influence which Martin Richter, who is a symbol of courage and freedom to the oppressed, has upon the residents of the hotel, is the main thread of Miss Baum's novel.

The Greeks of Homer's time, writes H. E. Jacobs, in "Six Thousand Years of Bread," were contemptuous of the Scythians, who ate oats like their horses. The Romans cherished the same contempt for the oat-eating Germans. And many centuries later, Samuel Johnson, in his famous English dictionary, defined oats as "food for men in Scotland, horses in England." To which, it is said, the indignant Scots replied, "England is noted for the excellence of her horses, Scotland for the excellence of her men."

The Book-of-the-Month Club announces that the selection for July will be "Joseph, the Provider," by Thomas Mann. This is the last volume of Mann's tetralogy about the life of Joseph.

Storekeepers in America's early days were somewhat indifferent to orderly inventories, Thomas D. Clark tells us, in "Pills, Petticoats and Plows." There is the story, for instance, of the merchant who couldn't find the handle to a pump he had ordered. In an impassioned letter, he informed the wholesale house that they had maliciously left him in the lurch. But before he could seal the letter a boy came in to say he had found the handle. Instead of destroying the letter and forgetting the matter, the storekeeper added the mildly apologetic postcript, "Never mind what I have said. We have found the darn thing," and sent it on.

Police Chief Brings Man Back Here From Reno On Misdemeanor Warrant

Tuesday, June 13, Police Chief James G. Reardon and Officer August Benassini returned Pat Bailey, 182 Flournoy street, to Daly City from Reno, Nevada, where they booked him and placed him in cell 1. He had been held in Reno after Chief Reardon issued an "all point" bulletin on a misdemeanor warrant on complaint of George Kirchhubel, 6296 Mission street, charging petty theft.

June 8 at 1:52 p. m., Officers George Hopman and Roland Petrocchi and Companies 1 and 6, D. C. F. D., answered an alarm from fire box 631 at East Cavour and Mission. There was a fire on the roof of the Motor House, 6999 Mission street, which was speedily extinguished.

June 8, at 5:05 p. m., Chief Reardon, Officers Henry Sundermann jr. and Bill Bolger picked up Harvey Sproul, Piedmont, and booked him enroute to the Oakland Police department, where he was wanted for questioning in connection with a stolen Indian motorcycle, 1943 model.

Captain Gus Ford, Company No. 2, D. C. F. D., had a fire which broke out at Central Creamery under control, June 9, 8:34 p. m. before Companies 1, 2 and 4 and Officers Bolger and Benassini and Sergeant Ricco Benedetti arrived. He was passing the creamery at the time and extinguished the blaze occasioned when towels on top of a heater caught fire.

June 10, 6:15 p. m. Officer Sundermann investigated an accident which occurred in front of 237 Acton street. A Pontiac coupe belonging to Sam Hansen, Richmond, parked in front of 279 Acton street, ran away and into the rear of a Dodge sedan belonging to Harold Biggar, 445 Bush street, parked in front of 237 Acton street. Biggar's car struck the Nash sedan of Leslie Gordon, 237 Acton street, parked in the driveway. Property damage resulted for all three cars. Hansen was given a tag for violation of Section 595 C. V. C.

There was an auto collision at Crocker avenue and Irvington street involving property damage, June 11, at 12:55 p. m. Officer Hopman responded. The vehicles involved were driven by Private Philip Waggoner and Tony A. Picci, 160 Peoria street.

Officers Petrocchi and Roy Beecher broke up a fight started by sailors at Signal Coffee shop, June 12, at 1:15 a. m. when the proprietor, Everett Bryan reported that they were wrecking the place. Officers found glass in the front door and window and cups and saucers broken. The sailors attempted to run away but two were picked up on Bepler street and two on Shakespeare street. At police headquarters they were identified by Bryan as the ones responsible for the fight and damage. Only two of them, Keith L. Elvert and Donald Keegan, were held.

NOW OVERSEAS

An Air Service Command station (Somewhere in England): Sergeant Charles M. Allen, the husband of Mrs. Edna Allen, 532 San Diego avenue, Daly City, is now overseas and has participated in a course designed to bridge the gap between training in the states and soldiering in an active theatre of war. At one of the Air Service Command Stations known as Central Depots Sergeant Allen was carefully processed by classification experts who make certain that he was well fitted for the job assigned to him.

Security training, personal hygiene, a talk by a Special Service Officer informing him of facilities for healthful recreation and a lecture by the Chaplain are all in turn a part of the soldier's preparation for duties overseas.

His next station will be one from which American fighting planes take off to smash the Nazi war machine.

Before entering the Army he was employed as a combination welder by the Metal Products Fabricating company.

Gas Coupons

Motorists who qualify for supplemental gasoline rations now receive ration coupons marked B-4 or C-4 instead of B-3 and C-3, the Office of Price Administration announced, June 8.

The change is in line with the OPA policy of making currently valid coupons easy to identify and at the same time making them harder to counterfeit.

OPA spokesmen emphasized that B-3 and C-3 coupons are still valid for use even though they are not being currently issued by local OPA boards.

Chance Meeting For Daly City Boys

The two young men on the right, above, are both from Daly City and met recently when their respective ships hit the same port "somewhere in the South Pacific." Left is Bob Jobson, seaman first class, and right is Bernard Janssen, electrician's mate second class, who sent the photo to his folks in Daly City, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Janssen, 63 Woodrow street. Both are graduates of Jefferson Union high school.

DAZZLING ICE FOLIES OPEN AT WINTERLAND

The fun and frolic of a circus, old-world pageantry and 18th century ballet, colorful and exotic oriental fantasy, and a child's dream of a wondrous candyland all appear on the Winterland ice in San Francisco where Shipstads' and Johnson's dazzling Ice Follies of 1944 opened, June 14.

Colorful showmanship and imagination have been blended in the "Crazy Quilt Circus" episode of the dazzling new musical revue on ice. Featured in the act is Betty Atkinson, "acrobatonics" star of the show, who leads the circus parade around the arena as she combines acrobatic ice skating with baton twirling.

Coolie girls, temple dancers, and radiant Norah McCarthy as the "Celestial Flower" are featured in the breathtaking "Oriental Fantasy" number of the show which presents some of the most novel and lavish costuming ever seen in an ice production, according to the management.

Every child's dream comes true when Phyllis Legg, the world's only stilt-skater, as "Miss Peppermint," Ruby Maxson and Bobby Blake, and the cute gingerbread kids frolic among sugar-coated cottages and giant-sized lollipops in the delightful fantasy of "Candyland."

The elegance and grace of eighteenth century ballet in a formal French garden appears on the Winterland ice one moment, and in the next, an English "Derby Day" is depicted with the famous line of Ice Follies precision skaters appearing in smooth striped trousers, top hats and tails.

The Ice Follies Swing Waltz, a favorite of Bay area audiences since 1939, is again a highlight of the extravagant ice revue, and features Ruby Maxson and Bobby Blake.

Winterland's management today urged mail orders as a convenient way of securing choice seats. Checks or money orders should be mailed to Winterland, Post and Steiner, San Francisco 15, it was stated.

How To Dress Up Salad Dressings

A GOOD ready-to-use salad dressing is, in itself, guaranteed to add zest to a meal. But there are scores of simple little ways to make them even more zestful. For instance:

FOR RICH COLOR, combine shredded raw beet and the juice of ½ lemon with 1 cup salad dressing or mayonnaise—adds interest to any raw or cooked vegetable salad.

★ ★ ★

FOR HOT VEGETABLES, try this home-made hollandaise: mix 1 cup salad dressing or mayonnaise, 2 tsps. prepared mustard, 1 tbsp. lemon juice, and a dash of salt—piquant on cauliflower, for example.

★ ★ ★

FOR MEAT OR FISH, combine 2 tbsps. finely chopped chives (green tops of onions will do), with 1 cup salad dressing—toothsome on vegetable salads, too.

★ ★ ★

FOR DESSERTS, mix 1 cup salad dressing with ⅔ cup fruit juice (any kind), and use generously as a topping for fruits—may be sweetened by adding a bit of honey.

Beauty Tip

SUMMER'S revealing fashions draw special attention to the throat line. Be sure to blend your makeup, as CBS singing star Joan ("Your Hit Parade") Edwards does, to the base of her throat and out to the shoulders. Swan necks can be "shortened" by the use of lighter makeup and, conversely, darker makeup will slim down and lengthen a short neck.

Recent Tin Drive Nets Eight Tons

The recent tin drive conducted by schools of the Jefferson Elementary district netted eight tons, according to R. L. Crane jr., salvage chairman.

Summer Salvage-For-Victory plans do not include pickups of either tin or waste paper, but local residents are asked to save both conscientiously until school reopens and the "junior commando" pickup squads are back on the job.

Old newspapers should be neatly bundled and tins should be delabeled, washed, and flattened.

Crane pointed out that tin is still a critical metal. The United States has virtually no native tin ore and reclaimed tin cans are now an important source of this fighting metal.

"The tin from only two empty tin cans will make one syrette. One syrette may—and often does—save a man's life. It is not a laborious task to wash and prepare two tin cans when we think of a wounded boy needing a syrette!" Crane stated.

NEWS FROM JEFFERSON UNION HI

By Verna Moresco

OPERETTA SUCCESS!

The colorful operetta "H. M. S. Pinafore" presented, June 8, by the music department of Jefferson, under the direction of Oscar Busch, music instructor, was a great success.

Featured members of the cast were Robert Olson, Right Honorable Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B., First Lord of the Admiralty; Kenneth Hatt, Captain Corcoran; Allen Pettigrew, Ralph Rackstraw, able seaman; Eugene Grant, Dick Deadeye; Kenneth Martin, Billy Bobstay, boatswain; Pat Marocco, Josephine, the captain's daughter; Vivian Thorsen, Hebe, Sir Joseph's first cousin; Virginia Nestor, Mrs. Cripps, Little Buttercup.

The stage set was prepared by Earle Lewis of the art department, and costumes were under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Jones.

NOW IT IS KNOWN

Once again the students of Jefferson put on their thinking caps and went to the polls to vote for their favorite candidates.

The election this term was certainly not spiritless! Signs were hanging all over the halls and the candidates themselves were seen passing out cards saying, "Don't forget to vote for me."

Wednesday, June 7, campaign speeches were held in the auditorium and, Friday, the students voted.

The following were chosen: Emile Lemoine, president; Dan Shannon, vice-president; Lois Rich, secretary; Rita Lozano, treasurer; Winifred "Winnie" Grant, yell-leader; and Art Valverde, judge. There were no candidates for the office of sergeant-at-arms.

BONDS 'N STAMPS

Students at Jeff are now busying themselves getting bonds during the Fifth War Loan drive which started Monday. During the drive the students can decide what kind of equipment they would like to buy and then bring in bonds for the equipment.

Some of the things that can be bought include: walkie-talkie, field telephone, Navy life boat, and machine gun.

Besides bringing in lots and lots of bonds, the sales of stamps has increased a great deal the last two months. The purchases for June have reached $154.90. Class standings so far are: seniors,, sophomores, juniors, and freshmen.

The idea of having each class present an assembly to which admittance is by stamps has helped increase sales.

The first program presented was the junior program, under the direction of Bob Olson and Pat Marocco.

The program included a five-piece band with Bob Ramage, Barbara Gregor, Emile Lemoine, Don Bortis, and George Perada. Virginia Nestor sang "Take It Easy." Piano solos were played by Barbara Gregor and Merilyn Huber.

Then, Friday, June 9, the freshmen and seniors presented their program. Elsie Belli was the senior mistress of ceremonies, and Walter Shannon, the freshman master of ceremonies.

The seniors also featured a four-piece band including LeAnna Hilbish, Eugene Grant, Bob Lane, and Ken Hatt.

Daisy Yonan sang "Poincianna" and "The Devil Sat Down And Cried." Elsie Belli presented a skit. Doris Richards, freshman, presented a tap dance number. Allen Pettigrew, alias "Swoonatra," sang "Long Ago and Far Away." A version of "Pistol Packin' Mama," was presented by two freshmen girls. A new talent discovered in the freshman class was John Rivera. John played two selections on the accordian which everyone enjoyed.

The sophomores were to have presented their program this Wednesday, June 14.

J. N. S.

The members of the Jefferson Naturalist society had their last party this term, when, Saturday evening, June 10, all enjoyed an evening of swimming.

After swimming, refreshments were served at the home of Dorothy Nelson, member of the society.

GYM

Basketball after school has started and the games are to be completed this week.

Team 1, of which Mildred Hix is captain, has won one game, and Team 2, with Violet Chelone as captain, has also won one game.

Rita Baccelli, Lucy Gomez, Dorothy Somerkamp, Rena Feutrier, and Beverly Gregoire have passed their beginners' swimming test.

ABOUT SCHOOL

Displayed on the library walls last week were enlarged Navy photographs sent by the Navy department.

Ralph Shinazy, Navy; Don Nelson, Army; Leslie Grieg, Army; were some of the past graduates of Jeff, now in the service, seen on the campus the last two weeks.

The seniors have received their personal cards and are now busy passing them around. Along with the personal cards the seniors received memory books.

"Passage To Marseilles" Showing At D. C. Theatre

The valiant contribution of those Frenchmen who fight—not bow to—fascism and the story of a small group of men who risked their lives to join that fight is the exciting background for the new Warner Brothers film, "Passage to Marseilles," which comes to the Daly City theatre tonight.

Starring Humphrey Bogart as Matrac, an anti-Nazi who has been banished to Devil's island on trumped-up charges, the picture tells of his daring escape from the Island with four other convicts and the peril they encounter in their attempt to get back to France.

When they are picked up, more dead than alive, in mid-ocean by a small freighter bound for Marseilles they utter silent thanks that their trials have ended—but in fact they have just begun. Halfway to Marseilles word comes that France has capitulated. This provokes a crisis on board parallel to the bigger one in Paris when issues were raised between collaborationists and anti-Nazis. Bogart and his four fellow-convicts settle the issue at last by taking over and piloting the ship straight into an English port—but not before Marius (Peter Lorre), one of the convicts, has died a hero's death.

A big supporting cast includes Claude Rains, Sydney Greenstreet, Helmut Dantine, remembered for their unforgettable portrayals in "Casablanca," and Michele Morgan, Philip Dorn and George Tobias.

President Of Mills To Be Jaysee Speaker

"Frontiers" will be the subject of the address delivered by Dr. Lynn Townsend White jr., president of Mills college, at the twenty-second San Mateo junior college commencement exercises, this Friday morning, in the Woodland open-air theatre in Hillsborough. The public is invited to the exercises, which start at 10:30, and at which 38 graduates will be presented diplomas by President Charles Morris. The graduates come from the entire county.

The program also includes the awarding of scholarships and service awards, music by the college a cappella choir, and the presenting of the class gift Reverend John R. Wilkins, Burlingame Methodist church, will give the invocation.

While the graduation officially closes the spring term at the college, the college students and their friends will hold the soph formal dance, Saturday evening, in the St. Francis hotel with Marilyn Merle and her all-girl orchestra playing for the dancing.

During the summer months, the college will feature a strong summer school program for the adults, and will also operate a complete cannery on the campus to help the county residents to can their vegetables and fruits. The work is state-inspected, just as in any other cannery, while the only charge is the cost of each can used. Complete information regarding the cannery can be obtained at the college. The plant has already been opened to public inspection.

O. P. A. Makes Eviction Changes

Three changes in the rent regulation for housing, designed to liberalize existing provisions relating to the eviction of tenants for occupancy by purchasers, were announced, June 8, by the Office of Price Administration.

The changes, which became effective, June 9, are as follows:

(1) The three-month waiting period after the issuance of an eviction certificate by the rent director now starts from the day the petition for the certificate is filed by the landlord with the rent director. Previously the waiting period began with the issuance date of the certificate.

(2) Area rent directors are no longer required to grant eviction certificates with the choice of either "no-waiting" period or a three-month waiting period. They may now, at their discretion, grant eviction certificates with waiting periods for less than three months.

(3) The provision requiring 20 per cent down payment on a house for eviction of a tenant for occupancy by a purchaser has been liberalized so that now under certain circumstances a part of the down payment may be from borrowed money.
